

THE POCHE DAILY RECORD

Two young men of this city—Henry Morris and Charles Chapman—will today undertake the performance of a somewhat novel exploit.

They are to start from the Enterprise building, C street, and go to the flag-staff on the summit of Mount Davidson and return to their starting point in three hours.

The money was put up by Peter Kuntz, the dealer, from Sacramento. It is no bet; Mr. Kuntz merely puts up his coin against their time and muscle.

The boys calculate to go up in a straight line for the flag-staff, and expect to consume two hours and thirty minutes in getting up and climbing the staff; the descent they expect to accomplish in thirty minutes.
